For Immediate Release

St. John's, NL – 04/12/07

Earth Day Eco-Stewardship Fair & Celebration

St. John's NL, Earth Day, April 22, 2007 -The Sierra Club Northeast Avalon Group in conjunction with local vendors, artists, musicians and nature lovers will host their first official Earth Day celebrations at Masonic Temple, 6 Cathedral Street in St. John's on Sunday, April 22 .

This is a free-to-all, public event. All ages welcome! Families, groups and individuals are encouraged to attend and participate.

The day-long event from 10am to 6pm, will promote healthy food choices and life styles, protection of our natural surroundings and wildlife, energy savings, and greening for our homes and communities with fun and educational activities for all ages. The event will focus on environmental issues facing our local communities and will also feature guest speakers, native drummers, face painting and some magical moments.

This exciting family friendly event will promote, educate and inspire the citizens of St. John's and surrounding region to reduce their impact on the environment all year long.

The Celebration doesn't stop there, after a day of family fun, drop the kiddies home and head on down to The Ship Inn, 265 Duckworth Street, for the official Earth Day after party. From 6pm until 10:30 pm you can join in the Earth Day Open Mic Extravaganza with Dan Ficken and Guests. There will be "Green" Drinks, good music and a great time. Activate your voices, your instruments, poems, and your ideas at the ship.

If you would like to volunteer, require vendor information or have any questions about this event please contact Peter Earle E-mail: earthdaynl@gmail.com
